

Danielle Easler

ARTIST STATEMENT:

Danielle Easler has always had a love of creating. She started her business in 2011 with beaded and wirework fashion jewelry. She soon realized that she loved making pieces by hand from start to finish instead of using premade components, so she decided to start from scratch and work with copper, sterling silver, and semiprecious stones. Metalsmithing lessons from a local jeweler have helped her to hone her style and craftsmanship. She's always researching and learning new techniques because it's fun and life is all about learning and improving.
