

Allegheny Treenware

ARTIST STATEMENT:

Stan and Sue Jennings met while working underground in the coal mines in 1984, but soon found themselves out of a job when the mines shut down. They married in 1986 and began their woodworking career together in 1990. What started as a hobby easily turned to a full-time profession. Stan and Sue's ancestors, both Colonial and Shaker in nature, provided a wealth of knowledge and designs that have proven successful in today's kitchens. Many years later they find themselves employing several friends and family members and offering over one hundred different styles of utensils.
