

Davin & Kesler

ARTIST STATEMENT:

Thomas Davin and Mary Kesler have been woodworking together since 1979. Their professional training began during their college years in California where Tom studied cabinet-making and design at California State University Northridge. Mary began woodworking to help pay expenses toward her BS at University of California Davis. After college, Thomas and Mary began a business and life partnership. Working out of a 19th-century mill, Mary and Tom utilize the beauty of their surroundings to create objects that are simple yet elegant in design.
