

MoonSpoon

ARTIST STATEMENT:

When MoonSpoon began, the design was a simple carved “moon” on a spoon. Jonathan and Julia Simons wanted to be certain their unique art concept of cutting wood spoons with a laser would work and it did. The name “MoonSpoon” evolved from their first moon design and the correspondent meaning of the moon. It means reflecting and sharing – and what could be more fun than sharing a Moon on a Spoon? They now have twelve patterns on about 35 different utensils. All spoons are made from solid Pennsylvania Cherry wood, 100% natural, with no dyes, resins or polymers.
